CAFOD Autumn Fair 21st October.

Pat Fuller has asked me to put this note in about the Autumn Fair.

"I am appealing for help to organise the Autumn fair which this year will be held at St. Mary's Hall in BleS on Saturday 21st October from 2.00 – 4.00pm. All our three churches are involved in this effort.

We need people – to organise and run stalls

- to set up the Hall, this needs some muscle
- to organize tea / coffee

We need generous donations of goods, prizes etc. and most importantly we need your support and attendance.

Please contact me on 745722 if you can help. Boxes for goods will be put out later."

Mgr. Tully.

Mgr. Tully has asked me to tell you that he had a cataract operation on his right eye this Friday and is recuperating in Boarbank over the weekend. I am sure he will be grateful for your prayers for a successful outcome to this second operation.

Confirmation 2018

The next meeting will be in the Presbytery on Sunday 15th October from 5.00 to 6.00pm

Scripture Talks in October.

Fr, Luiz Ruscillo will be giving a series of talks on the Old Testament Prophets on the 3rd, 10th & 17th October and the 7th & 14th November.

These will be at the Education Centre from 7 till 8pm, and remember that he starts and finishes on time. Everyone is welcome, these scripture talks are always informative yet fun and don't forget to bring a Bible.

Yealand Church Decoration.

Many thanks to the volunteers who worked so hard to clean the Church on Friday. I think the stone floor looks very much in keeping with the Church and when it is sealed it will blend together better. If it doesn't we can always put a carpet over it. The scaffolding firm should be in on Monday, followed by the painters.

Because of this work we will have Mass in the Hall for a while. There can't be many parishes that, when their Victorian Church is being renovated, can decamp to their Georgian Church.

New Steps at Carnforth.

In spite of all the bad weather, the new steps are complete and ready for use. It means that there is more space when the doors are opened and people can use the hand rails at the side, should they so wish.

Aid to the Church in Need.

Next Sunday Chris Robson will be talking about the work of this charity, to keep us up to date with what they are doing.

Divorce Care.

This is a weekly Christian support group, run by the Carnforth Free Methodist Church. Information leaflets at the back of OLOL Church.

CATHOLIC? GOING TO UNIVERSITY THIS YEAR?

A new website has been set up to help young people find their Catholic Chaplaincy when they arrive at university this autumn.

Most of our Universities and Higher Education Institutions have a dedicated Catholic Chaplain based in the university or the local parish. The Catholic Chaplaincy is a place for you to explore your faith as a young adult, to meet other young people with similar interests from a great range of backgrounds, and to get involved in activities and social outreach. If you already have a strong faith, this is a chance to deepen it. If you are full of questions and doubts, this is a chance to share them and search for some honest answers about life and faith. Everyone is welcome.

To find your local Chaplaincy, and for contact details of all the University Chaplains and Catholic Student Societies, visit the "CathChaps" website at: www.cathchaps.co.uk

Next Sunday's Special Collection.

On Sunday, 24th September, we have a collection for the Bishop's Administration Fund, which helps to pay for the many diocesan events and commissions and offices and committees all of which are an essential part of a modern diocese.

Lectio Divina.

The next Lectio is on Tuesday 19th September at St Mary's Yealand from 2pm until 3pm.
All welcome.
