INSIDE THE CHURCH

On door:

Remember before God those who have given their lives for their country. 'Greater love hath no man than this, that he may lay down his life for his friends. At the going down of the sun and in the morning we will remember them.' To the greater glory of God this screen was erected to the memory of those of this parish who gave their lives in the World War 1939 - 1945 and in thankful recognition of all those who served their country. The gift of John William THORNER of Bolton-le-Sands.

Sacred to the memory of the Rev. Arthur Roger TOMLINSON M.A., for nineteen years Vicar of this Parish. The fourth son of Thomas and Sarah TOMLINSON of Heysham House. He was born the 5th of January 1844, died at the Vicarage March 19th 1919 and was buried in this churchyard. And of Theresa Juliana Marie, his wife, who died 21st April 1921 aged 70 years. Also of Frederic Roger John, their youngest son, Lieutenant South Staffordshire Regiment who was killed in action near Ypres October 1914.

Window: To the glory of God in affectionate remembrance of Richard and Jane MASHEDER. This window is dedicated by their children Easter Day 1881.

Plaque: AD 1763 This V. of Bolton was augm^d and AD 1764 lands purch^d with 400^l when given by Queen Anne's Bounty 200

North Wall:

Plaque: This tribute of unfading recollection is inscribed to Mary, wife of John WALMSLEY of Richmond House in this county, Esquire. Her earlier life was passed in the unassuming practice of exemplary virtues, in a patient continuance of well-doing. Her later years of pain which terminated the XXIX day of October MDCCCXXXIII at the age of LXIII years were marked by calm resignation by a pure and perfect hope in her redeemer. 'Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God believe also in me.' St. John c. XIV, v. 1.

Plaque: To Richard Sparling BERRY A.M., of Queen's College, Oxford and of Bolton Lodge in this vicinity, Esquire. Unsited by constitution to public pursuits for which by his talents and attainments he was eminently qualified, his limited period of life was engaged on objects congenial to a classic taste, in acts of public good and of extensive private benevolence. His efforts were ever anxiously directed to the promotion of order, piety and virtue, to these ends, no less by his influence than example, in the prime of his life at the age of XL years in the pleasure of his usefulness he was called away the XXIX day of January MDCCCXXXVIII. By none were his qualities more fully estimated than by his relation and heir John WALMSLEY Esquire who placed to his memory this memorial.

Window:

Wall Plaque: Here lies the body of Tho. COLE, of Beaumont Cote, Esq. obit Jan. XII anno domini MDCXCII. He was a person of comly presence & deportment, of such a great indomnity of mind that 3 successive kings thought him worthy of ye trust & authority of a magistrate being Justice of Peace of over .. term & then Deputy Sergt. of this county to his death. He had a head of law and a hand of justice but with an eye of compassion on whose office was to maintain peace for he was a peace maker, a lover of it & now enjoys it as being a good Magistrate, a good Christian & a good man. Jane, his wife, & Edm., his son, placed here ye monument.
